

Cultivating Compassion in a Crisis:

Innovative Approaches to Substance Use

Join us for a one day conference of capacity building based on harm reduction strategies and models that may benefit people who use drugs.

The JHU AIDS Education and Training Center is authorized to provide Category I Continuing Education Credits for social workers for this event.

This training has been made possible with funding provided by the Maryland Department of Health, Prevention & Health Promotion Administration

Thursday, March 29, 2018
8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Martin's West
6817 Dogwood Road
Baltimore, Maryland 21244

Register Online***

<https://www.maaetc.org/events/view/10867>

**Anyone who has not registered on this new online system, will need to set-up an account. If you already have an account set up, login and click register for this event.*

MARYLAND
Department of Health