Legends and Young'uns

2018 CONFERENCE

“Phenomenal Women Living
Longer with the Challenge of HIV”

Older Women Embracing Life (OWEL) and the Johns Hopkins University AIDS Education Training Center (AETC), in collaboration with Morgan State University School of Community Health and Policy, will host the Thirteenth Annual Legends and Young'uns Conference. This full day regional conference will address the unique issues of women living with the challenge of HIV/AIDS, both those perinatally infected and newly diagnosed – the “Young'uns,” as well as those aging up and living well in their senior years – the “Legends.” Experts in the field will provide information pertaining to the treatment and management of HIV/AIDS in women, including prevention, education, testing, life skills and resource information, via plenary presentations and interactive workshops.

TARGETED AUDIENCE: Females Only

Nurses, social workers, outreach workers, counselors, case managers and female consumers.
