

MAAETC Prevention Community of Practice
Funded by the HRSA Bureau of Primary Health Care and HRSA HIV/AIDS Bureau

MidAtlantic AIDS Education and Training Center
Prevention Community of Practice Session #4: February 10, 2022, 12:00-1:15 PM
PrEP: Monitoring and Adherence

Target Audience: Physicians, Nurses, Nurse Practitioners, and other medical team members involved in supporting patients on PrEP

Learning Objectives: After this activity, participants should be able to: 1. Describe who is a candidate for PrEP. 1) Identify the monitoring parameters for patients on PrEP; 2) Identify 3 potential barriers to adherence to PrEP; 2) Describe and implement three (3) strategies that address potential barriers to adherence to PrEP; 3) Describe potential new PrEP medications that support adherence.

Agenda Item	Details	Staff	Time Frame
I. Welcome/Introductions			12:00-12:10
A. Welcome	All attendees introduce themselves, briefly	Dorcas Baker
B. Housekeeping	CEs, registration reminders, evaluation followup, etc	Nathan Villalpando
C. Introduce Dr. Huang	James L. Huang, M.D., F.A.A.F.P Family Medicine Specialty Director Unity Health Care, Washington, DC	Cheryl Pack
II. PrEP: Monitoring and Adherence		Dr. Huang	12:10 – 12:45
A. Slides
B. Other
III. Case study & Discussion		Dr. Huang	12:45–1:05
IV. Next sessions/surveys			1:05-1:14
A. Input for March 2022 session PrEP and Minority and Underserved Populations	Ask participants: any specific suggestions for Dr. Huang's next session?	Cheryl Pack
B. Reminder about registration for future sessions: I. We cancelled 2/17/22 II. Please make note of 3 hour, May 2022 session	Think about staff you would like to attend the May Standardized Patient PrEP Preceptorship session.	Susan Thompson
C. (optional) PrEP info/knowledge pre-test for those yet to complete it.		Gili Ronen
V. Adjourn			1:14 -1:15

Review of Upcoming Prevention Community of Practice Learning Sessions: Sessions are on Thursdays from 12:00 – 1:15 p.m. (except*)

Date	Session Topic	Speaker/Facilitator
2/17/22	Best Practice and Discussion	n/a cancelled
3/10/22	PrEP and Minority and Underserved Populations	James Huang, M.D.
4/14/22	PrEP and the Use of Telehealth	Dr. Jason Farley
5/12/22 * 12 – 3 p.m.	Standardized Patient PrEP Preceptorship	Team
6/9/22	PrEP Best Practices and Next Steps	Team

All program registration info can be found at this link. www.maaetc.org/p/preventioncommunityofpractice
Program access code is BPHC.